Liturgical Colors

Some of the liturgical seasons are labeled with an ongoing strip in that color, indicated below:

Each Sunday (as well as some other solemnities and important days) are marked with the liturgical color of the day by a color coordinating flower. Here are the coordinating flowers for each liturgical color:

- Liturgical color purple (lent or Advent)
- Liturgical color green (Ordinary Time)
- Liturgical color red (Easter, Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, Corpus Christi, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and the Feast of the Holy Spirit)
- Liturgical color blue (Feast of the Holy Spirit)
- Liturgical color white (Christmas, Epiphany, Ascension, Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, Corpus Christi, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and the Feast of the Holy Spirit)
