BirdWatch Ireland is the largest independent conservation organisation in Ireland. A registered charity, its aim is the conservation of wild birds and their natural habitats.

Established in 1968, it currently has over 15,000 members and supporters and a local network of 30 branches nationwide.

It owns or manages a number of nature reserves which protect threatened habitats and the birds that rely on them; works to conserve Ireland's biodiversity; produces a range of publications dealing with birds and nature conservation in Ireland; and carries out educational and survey work.
