

WAKE FOREST LAW

At A Glance

Wake Forest University School of Law recently ranked #31 of all ABA accredited law schools listed in the U.S. News & World Report, marking the fourth year in a row we've risen in the rankings. We're even more proud that our legal writing program is ranked #5 in the country. With the combination of our rigorous curriculum and experiential learning commitment, as well as our ground-breaking Professional Development Course, our students are fully prepared to enter and succeed in today's legal market.

Quick Facts:

- Graduates of the class of 2018 accepted positions in 23 states across the country and the District of Columbia, as well as 3 foreign countries.
- Students in the 2018 entering class boasted a median LSAT score of 162 or higher and a median undergraduate GPA of 3.58 or higher.
- Students in the class of 2018 came from 31 states and 100 colleges & universities.

"[Our 1L summer intern] produced a thorough, succinct analysis of a nuanced fiduciary duty question. Her memo was extraordinarily good—particularly when considering that she had not yet taken corporations. The memo would have been well done by a junior associate at a large law firm. Very well done!" -

General counsel of technology company, Raleigh, NC