

A woman and a man are celebrating at the finish line of a 5K trail run. The woman, on the left, is wearing a grey athletic top and camouflage pants, with a race bib number 627. She has her arms raised in the air. The man, on the right, is wearing a black t-shirt and light blue shorts, also with his arms raised. In the background, there is a blue and yellow inflatable archway, a green tent, and other participants and spectators. The event is taking place outdoors on a paved path.
