

Wells Fargo proudly works with Asian-American and Pacific Islander communities in the creation of the Lunar New Year Calendar. Four artists contributed their unique visual storytelling to celebrate the Year of the Dragon.

Tiffany Le

Watercolor

Tiffany is a Vietnamese-American illustrator who investigates themes towards cultural legacy, comparative mythology and literature, and social topics through an Asian-American lens.

Alex Cabal

Folk Art

Alex is a Filipino-American illustrator. She uses bold shapes, textures and contrasting colors to tell a story or depict an empowering portrait. Her work explores themes through mythology, spirituality, and culture.

Maggie S. Chan

Anime/Manga

Maggie is a Chinese-American concept artist whose storytelling shapes the style of her art. With that versatility, she's able to adapt to the different needs of each unique project.

Brendan Nguyen

3D Realism

Brendan is a Vietnamese-American concept artist that specializes in character and creature designs for live-action and video games. Inspired by comic books and dinosaur books, he strives to showcase realism in his work.
