The image features a flat-lay arrangement of baby items on a light grey background. In the center is a white short-sleeved onesie with three snap buttons at the bottom. To its left is a long, grey, textured knit scarf tied into a knot at the top, which is also looped around a light-colored wooden ring. To the right of the onesie is a small, grey and white striped stuffed rabbit. Below the rabbit are two brown suede boots with white fur lining and gold-colored fringe. At the bottom of the onesie are two black footprints, each containing a white heart.
