1. Basic personal amount – A resident of Canada can enter a basic personal amount of $15,000. However, if your net income from all sources will be greater than $165,430 and you enter $15,000, you may have an amount owing on your income tax and benefit return at the end of the tax year. If your income from all sources will be greater than $165,430, you have the option to calculate a partial claim. To do so, fill in the appropriate section of Form TD1-W5, Worksheet for the 2023 Personal Tax Credits Return, and enter the calculated amount here.

2. Canada caregiver amount for infirm children under age 18 – Only one parent may claim $2,499 for each infirm child born in 2006 or later who lives with both parents throughout the year. If the child does not live with both parents throughout the year, the parent who has the right to claim the "Amount for an eligible dependant" on line 8 may also claim the Canada caregiver amount for the child.

3. Age amount – If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2023, and your net income for the year from all sources will be $42,335 or less, enter $8,396. You may enter a partial amount if your net income for the year will be between $42,335 and $98,309. To calculate a partial amount, fill out the line 3 section of Form TD1-W5.

4. Pension income amount – If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (not including Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, old age security, or guaranteed income supplement payments), enter whichever is less: $2,000 or your estimated annual pension income.

5. Tuition (full-time and part-time) – Fill in this section if you are a student at a university or college, or an educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees. Enter the
