

Take the longest flights in the world in style next year! Flying fancy Singapore Airlines Premium Economy with best availability next spring.

There are no economy seats on these Singapore flights, only premium economy and business class. We just flew this route and thought the specialized cabin, attentive service, and comfy seats made the flight easy! Here's our hour-by-hour account of the journey.

What's Included:

Singapore Airlines Premium Economy (our review) includes a carry-on, two free checked bags, and seat assignment. The seats are wider and offer more legroom than economy. You'll be able to order from the fancy "Book the Cook" menu. Amenity kits are available by request.

Thrifty Tip: Book the "Solo Seat" in the last three rows of the plane for $160. Singapore removes the window seat and replaces it with a storage compartment in these rows. It's a private and roomy way to fly.

Departure Cities

(All fares round-trip, *nonstop)

New York (JFK)

Denpasar (DPS) - $1420
Jakarta (CGK) - $1422
Kuala Lumpur (KUL) - $1426
Manila (MNL) - $1415
Singapore (SIN) - $1320*

Newark (EWR)

Bangkok (BKK) - $1446
Cebu (CEB) - $1490
Denpasar (DPS) - $1437
Jakarta (CGK) - $1422
Kuala Lumpur (KUL) - $1377
Manila (MNL) - $1415
Phuket (HKT) - $1429
Singapore (SIN) - $1320*