

An aerial night photograph of the University of Rochester campus. The central focus is the Old Chapel building, featuring a large, illuminated dome and a classical portico with columns. To the left, a well-lit sports field is visible. The surrounding area is filled with trees showing autumn foliage and other campus buildings. In the far distance, the city skyline of Rochester is visible against the dark night sky. The text "Be boundless." is overlaid in a large, white, sans-serif font, with a yellow horizontal bar behind the word "boundless".

Be boundless.
